"What am I bid?"

The Saturday evening show was also quite an event - we've now blown the power at 2 of our council camps! Fortunately, with the help of Don Bur's trusty RV's generator, the Shows Staff was able to pull off a great show, and we all enjoyed a good laugh as each new Vigil members tried to read his Vigil name to the crowd! Once the lights were back on, the patch auction was quite entertaining, and raised

2001 Fall Fellowship Enjoyed by All

by William Hayes, Lodge Vice-Chief of Fellowship

Coosa Lodge 50 held its second Fall Fellowship at Winnataska, and it was a blast! Over 300 members enjoyed a weekend of fun, training, games, competitions and relaxation. One of the highlights was definitely the Pie Auction - who wouldn't want to throw a jello-filled, whipped cream pie at a new Lodge Officer?

At the Lodge Business meeting, the membership elected the following new Lodge officers for 2002: Chief: Chris Brightwell, Vice-Chief of Service: Anand Iyer, Vice-Chief of Fellowship: William Hayes, Vice-Chief of Inductions: Bill Souder, Secretary/Treasurer: Jim Ellison.

almost $2,000 for our Camp Scholarship Fund. The "Coosa Cash" also came in handy, as several members walked away with some great patches by bidding their "Cash"!

"A Direct Hit"

A big thanks to Tribe Chief Andrew Land and the Cherokee Tribe for hosting this fun fellowship weekend - it was definitely enjoyed by all, and I hope you'll make plans now to join us in 2002!

2002 Dues Are Due Now!

By Jim P. Ellison, Coosa Lodge Secretary/Treasurer

It's that time of year again to pay your OA dues. In order to stay an active member, every member must pay his/her dues, which covers paying your dues to the National OA office, printing and mailing this newsletter, and other lodge correspondence. The dues this year are $7.50 for those members who were active last year, and $14.50 for those members who were not active last year. If you took your Ordeal during 2001, you are already paid for 2002 - this was included in your Ordeal registration fee.

If you have not paid your dues for 2002, please fill out the enclosed 2002 Dues Registration Form in this newsletter, and make sure to send it in by December 20, 2001. You will receive your 2002 Coosa Lodge 50 membership card in the mail. If you have not paid your dues by this date, your name will be dropped from the active Lodge Database file, so do it now!

New Coosa Backpatch Ordered

By Red Feather Herald Staff

Yes, we will finally have a Lodge Backpatch, but it will be worth the wait! The new Coosa Lodge 50 jacket patch has been ordered, and should be first on sale at the LLDC. Designed by Delane Terrell, it not only looks good, but tells a story as well.

In addition, the LEC approved "Event Segments" to fit around the backpatch. At each Lodge event during 2002, a different segment will be issued to those who attend. This will start at the LLDC in January, so make plans now to attend!

From The Lodge Chief

By Chris Brightwell, Lodge Chief

Brothers,

A new year is quickly approaching. As we prepare for the new year, new Lodge Officers have been installed, the Council of Chiefs has set the plans in motion for the 2002 SR-6S Conclave, and the National Order of the Arrow Conference contingent leaders are preparing to take members of our Lodge to Indiana University for the 2002 National Order of the Arrow Conference. The Publications Committee has already written and published the newsletter you're reading and are preparing to unveil a bigger and better Coosa Lodge Website.

While your Lodge Officers and Advisers prepare and develop the events that will take place over the next year, we invite you all to take a place in one of the Lodge Operating Committees. There are seven committees, as follows: Nominations and Recognitions, Publications and Communications, Ceremonies, Service Corps, Membership, Camping Promotions, and Fellowship.

It is imperative that these committees have a full roster of active members, because these are the committees that will lead us toward awards and recognitions at both Section and National gatherings, and will work to keep all of our Lodge membership informed and prepared for what we all have planned for the next year. Each committee will meet during the Lodge Leadership Development Conference (LLDC) to plan their goals for 2002, so be there to take an active part in the committee you choose.

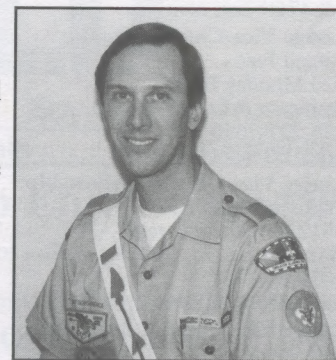

The LLDC is the annual "starting block" for our lodge calendar. Arrowmen from the entire Lodge gather for a day of instruction and fellowship. There are classes for every aspect of our great Order. Some of the planned topics include: Running an Effective Ordeal, Obtaining Brotherhood Status, National Order of the Arrow Opportunities, Unit Elections and Lodge Structure.

I look forward to working with each of you and to another great year for Coosa Lodge 50. In leadership and service- Chris Brightwell, Lodge Chief.

Adviser's Viewpoint

By James Flatt, MD, Lodge Advisor

While thinking of the events in our country since September 11, I was reminded of a song we occasionally sing in church - "Give me the Heart of a Servant". Our country has witnessed a resurgence of commitment to the traditional values we hold to in Scouting, and from that we have seen evidence of servant leadership springing up everywhere, from donating blood to helping with donations to the Red Cross and its relief fund.

As members of the Order, we should continually try to show the heart of a servant to all who come in contact with us. In electing you to the Order of the Arrow, your troop recognized your willingness to serve as examples of the Scout Oath and Law, and you should strive to be worthy of that honor by leading in service by example.

This is true servant leadership - using your example to show your leadership as you serve those around you - put another way: "actions speak louder than words". Just as thousands have done since September 11, let's all strive to find ways to actively serve, so that those around us may see the Scout Oath and Law in our daily lives. Best wishes for the Holidays, and I look forward to seeing you at Lodge Leadership Development Conference!
